Character

YAMASHITA TOHRU

Yamashita, a gay man without a lover for 25 years – his virginity's age, is a big fan of Hikaru, the #0.1 actor in gay porn industry. One day, he saw Hikaru and earnestly requested, "Please accept my virginity." But he got the wrong guy. He somehow managed to escape after sleeping with him but then the next day, he met that gay again at his company...

ASAOKA RYUICHI

He's the son of the vice president of the company where Yamashita is working. 23 years old. Because he looks totally like Hikaru, Yamashita goes and hit on (?) him. The next day, they meet again as senior and junior at Hikaru's father company which he just joined. Although at first he says that he resents and wants to bully Yamashita for running away, he gradually comes to like Yamashita, an orphan who resembles a small animal...

① The recording went very smoothly and I had a lot of fun acting. Conversations with Yusa-san were very interesting as well.

② It's kind of rare since Yamashita is the type that likes guys from the beginning, that left an impression on me.

After Recording Report

MEMO-1

Everyone entered the studio one after another. Sakimori-san, who voices Yamashita, was calm enough to make the squad. Kusanagi, who voices Arakawa was cool and stylish enough to make my heart pound quickly!! Ah, the person who's taking in the sound director is Kame-san, who voices Tamao. Kame-san "lets you sleep-IT".

Kame-san is rubbing the sound director's body from the front to back gently... what is going on?

Sound director: "No no, this is not a joke, it's really broken (laughs)".

Oh, is his colleague broken during an accident?! But the sound director was his usual, high tension self, even the staff was shocked!

Engineer: "Should I tell them the place where your love is broken? (laughs)". Ah, he's being considerate, right? But that's not IT! Well, so that means they can finally attack him... he's laughing so hard at how close his love is.

MEMO-2

At first, we ran a test, and then the real show starts with characters who have no more complaints.

Kusanagi: "You really let it go?"

Sound director: "But is there something else? I think we're all well-prepared already."

Kusanagi: (nod head) So we really have to turn off the air conditioner, huh."

Sound director: "Is that your main focus (everyone laughs out loud)".

Yes, we have to stop the recording because the sound of the air conditioning can be picked up.

MEMO-3

During the waiting time interval in between the recording, I can hear people talking and laughing as if they're enjoying themselves.

Kame-san: "The character he plays is actually older, but is real life it's the opposite."

Kusanagi: "It's only a little younger."

Sound director: "Oh-san is the same age as Kusanagi right?"

Kusanagi: "Yes."

This conversation became more exciting since the sound director joined it. I would be happy if the relationship of the studio staff could also appear this close in the CD.

MEMO-4

While recording the background chatter of the office, I wonder what everyone's talking about. What I got the headphones on... everyone is giggling!! They're all lowering their heads down to the customers and their boss somewhat!! Ah, what kind of music company is this... "musical"!

Finally a recording session filled with laughter and fun ended. We writing down all those laughing everyone can feel this atmosphere, which he's trying to convey.

The entrance of the studio. Except about the recording monitor that is about to start!

This is where we record. It seems like no-one is here yet!

The microphones are all ready, also (going to see about microphones?)

This is a view of the staff room from the recording studio.

This is the staffroom.

The meeting room the new music office. During high tension meetings, make the entrance and check with customers.

PORNO SUPERSTAR

AFTER RECORDING REPORT

Shimono: I'm not 26 years old like Yamashita but I didn't really have any self-confidence in my early 20s. Although it's different now, I was never the type to step forward. During training lessons, I have extremely negative thoughts whenever they teacher says, "Okay, please raise your hand if you want to do it." I wish it would be over quickly without me having to raise my hand.

Yusa: To be honest, I used to be just like him even though they all said it was impossible for me to be in this line of work (everyone laughs). That's why I understand the feeling.

But because of that reason, I don't see anything in common between me and Asaoka (everyone laughs). The only thing we have in common is both of our names have 4 kanji characters (everyone bursts out laughing).

However, the names themselves are completely different (everyone laughs).

Shimono: That's true. They're totally different.

Yusa: I know, right? Since his name is "One" while mine is "Two".

● THIS TIME, THE 2 MAIN CHARACTERS MET AGAIN ■ SENIOR AND JUNIOR. COULD YOU PLEASE TELL US IF YOU GUYS HAD ANY MOMENTS WITH YOUR SENIOR AND JUNIOR RELATIONSHIP?

Shimono: Then I'll be talking about something I've always been trouble with. There was a newbie who just joined. He was obviously 5-6 years older than me but when it comes to experience, I'm the higher-up in this industry. I didn't really know how to talk to a guy like him.

Yusa: That's... true. In our industry, the difficult part is members at the scenes are different every single time. We would greet normally like, "I'm looking forward to working with you," but we wouldn't say, "I'm... years old and this is my... year already," while thinking, "I wonder if he's older. What should I do so I don't come across as being rude?" So we would always have to look and at the situation and decide on the spot.

● THE STORY THIS TIME BEGINS FROM A TOTAL MISUNDERSTANDING. PLEASE TELL US IF THERE WAS ANY MOMENT RELATING TO THIS MISUNDERSTANDING.

Shimono: The other day, a friend who was working together with me told me, "I'm getting married". When I asked him, "By the way, what time is your wedding? What time is the after-party?" Um, inside of my head, I was thinking, "What time does the after-party start?" but he instead he answered the time it ends. Then, on the actual day, I was taking my time thinking, "Okay, it starts at 3PM, huh?" but the invitation says 12PM. I hurried and rushed to the place but it was nearly the end and they were already preparing to bring out the dessert. Finally, I was only able to hear the voice actor's speech and then the after-party ended.

Yusa: There were some different parts in this time's scenario and dialogues but they didn't affect much so I was overlooked (everyone laughs). The words just kept coming naturally while we were talking to each other so the boss allowed us to keep that way of talking.

Shimono: That's right. Since they let us blend with the atmosphere.

Yusa: That's why this is definitely not a misunderstanding! With that being said, I strongly want to assure it (laughs).
